SENIORS

CLASS OFFICERS

BETTY BRIDGES
President

THOMAS DOLAN
Vice President

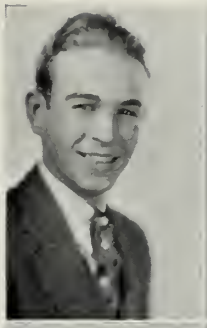
MIRIAM MURRAY
Secretary

HELEN VANCE
Treasurer

Robert K. Adair

Cadet Captain, Dramatics, Football, Year Book, Student Council

"Bob," our ever popular "Adonis," reminds one of the old saying, "Half in fooling, all in earnest;" for there is a serious purpose beneath that nonchalant air of his. He aims to become an officer in the Merchant Marine.



Nancy T. Antetomaso

Although as quiet as a mouse, "Nan," does a lot of thinking. She loves to spend whole days just making scrap books, and some of them are very fine. We don't hear much from "Nan, but we'd all miss her if she was not here.

Maura G. Adler

Social Committee

Maura's personality seems almost too good to be true, for besides having a lovely appearance, she has an extremely pleasing temperament. We regret that we cannot acquire those tricky steps in Maura's dancing, which she displayed at the Prom.

Joseph A. Babineau

Football, Baseball, Cadet Sergeant

"Bab" is that rather well liked fellow whom we do not seem to see too much of. He is now in the U. S. N. R. and some day hopes to be a government Test Pilot (or Pile It)

Olive Allen

Picture Committee, Glee Club

"Ollie" is gifted with a most dynamic personality. She has an extremely winning smile and a neat personal appearance. She is going to be a beauty culturist, and with all her charms, she will be a great one.

Mary T. Begley

Advertising Committee

"Begs" is one of our most ardent Latin students. She always appears calm and unruffled. "Begs" is always prompt to reply, and her winning smile adds much to her attractiveness. She is interested in dramatics, but her real ambition is to become a Latin scholar.

Lucy D. Altavilla

Social Committee

"Lu" has several secret passions: dancing, skating, and, "ma" friends, jazz music. "Popeye" wants to be a nurse or a secretary. She is a newcomer to this school. She hails from Pennsylvania.

Ruth E. Bell

Year Book Committee, Senior Patrol

"Ding Dong" is always bubbling over with merriment. Nobody can be gloomy when she is around. She aspires to becoming a rival of Sonia Henie. We believe she has Sonia's personality already. The rest may come later.

Thomas Altimar

Cadet Captain, Baseball

"Smutch," the matinee idol of R. H. S., is fond of football and baseball. One wonders how this "idol" finds time for such sports.

Mary A. Benersani

Three words describe Mary: loyalty, cheerfulness, and wit. To be a telephone operator is her ambition, as she wants to do a bit of checking up on her many friends. Her amiable manner is one of her most valuable traits, and she has brightened up many dull moments for the girls of 109.

Elizabeth H. Benson

Year Book Committee, Senior Patrol

Done your good deed today, Girl Scout? "Bebe" is a girl of varied interests, the main ones being Nelson Eddy, "Radio," skating and dancing. Anyone with a voice like Mr. Eddy's fits with her. We're still wondering which she preferred, the meetings at the Arena, or the collisions at Billings. 'Fess up, Betty.

Ralph A. Bernazzani

"Baskob" is one of the woman hating members of our clan. We predict he will yet be an ardent worshiper. His hobbies are fishing and stamp collecting He hopes to be a travelling salesman.

Robert E. Berry

This smiling gent from 111 seems to have the record appetite. Although a little fellow Bob can sure pack it away. Gene busies himself by collecting stamps and working in a florist shop. He has that certain yen for flowers and hopes to stay with them someday in his own shop.

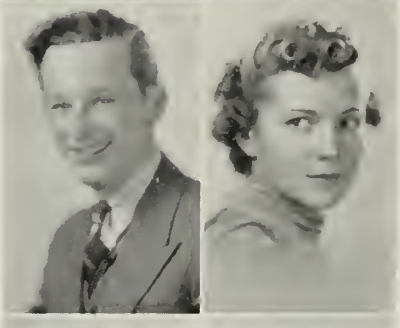
Blanche C. Biggi

Fashion Show, Tennis Tournament.

Quiet and inconspicuous, "Chrissie" is an active girl in sports, especially tennis. Although quiet, her admirable traits cannot be concealed. Her extreme good nature and quick wit have been revealed to all her classmates. She is a very talented artist and expects to design clothes for her living.

Betty P. Blackmore

Besides being blessed with blondness, "Blackie" has a very cheerful disposition. Her modesty and quiet manner tend to make her character more admirable. She is a keen bowler and is willing to compete with anyone. Some day she hopes to be a secretary.



Helen F. Bradley

"Brad" is, without a doubt the most athletic girl in Roslindale High. She is fond of talking, especially before Home Room Periods. We all think she would make a great gym teacher. Go to it, "Brad."

Elinor L. Brauer

Year Book Committee

With a "bit of sophistication in her walk," "Ellie" has a cheerful word for everyone and a smile which works wonders. Wherever there is talking and laughing, "Ellie" is always the ringleader, for her passion is talking at the "right" time! She is very anxious to travel and see the world.

Betty V. Bridges

President of the Class, Red Cross, Year Book, Ring Committee Dance Committee, Senior Patrol.

Feminine and sweet in manner; sturdy in mind and character. A rare combination yet our "Betty" has it, and has used it for the good of the class. We are all truly appreciative.

Ester G. Brown

Fashion Show

Tall and graceful is our Ester. She has a very pleasing, gentle voice and is a delight in every class room. She desires to be a private secretary, and with her abilities she should succeed.

Ruth T. Bryant

"Bunny" is tiny and sweet. Her babyish talk has won her many new friends this year. She wishes to be a beauty culturist, and her dainty manner will get her there, we are sure.

Mary Buccigross

Mary is truly an all round girl. She is always a model of "what the wise sub-deb will wear." She has a rather bad habit of lifting spoons. However, we all have our cravings. We will always remember her as one of our most friendly classmates.

Gertrude M. Cassidy

We can't say enough about "Trudie's" humor. It has rocked Roslindale High many times this year, and it has helped to cheer us all up. This will be a great asset to her as she is planning to be a nurse.

Guy J. Cammarata

Cadet Captain, Baseball, President Student Council.

We have here the Cab Calloway of R. H. S. Though he likes to swing a baseball bat, he would rather swing a baton. "Lightning's" ambition is to lead a band of his own some day.

Iona G. Cefalo

Dramatics, Drill Leader

We don't hear much from "Tess," but that isn't because she hasn't anything to say. She has a deep love for horses and some day hopes to own a riding stable. Her frank and ready understanding have won her many new friends this year.

Catherine T. Campbell

Quiet and unassuming "Kay" is one of our most pleasant classmates. She has a soft, sweet manner of speaking, which seems to harmonize with her other charming qualities. Kay is also very much interested in athletics. In horseback riding she excels.

Betty P. Chellman

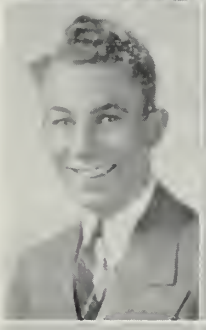
Drill Leader

"Bet" is anxious to see the king. Her ambition is to go to the coronation, but her going seems a bit doubtful. She loves history and is very much interested in the King of England and his affairs. "Bet" is very much alive and has many interests.

F. Henry Canty

Baseball, Football.

"Henry," a "football player with looks," caused many fair hearts to flutter last fall. Henry goes in for music and for sports, and he excels in both. Henry will want to cross-examine you someday when he has his own law practice.

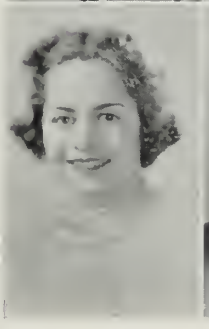


Virginia M. Child

Virginia is much admired for her calm manner of attacking great and small tasks. She is extremely anxious to be a secretary to a doctor, and she is well fitted for this. Her sense of humor, known by her intimate friends, gives her an even more fascinating personality.

Carolyn H. Capitell

"Cal" is noted for those huge eyes and curly lashes. Besides being a very graceful dancer, she is also a grand tennis player. You can find her at Billings Field tennis courts in the summer practicing up on her strokes.



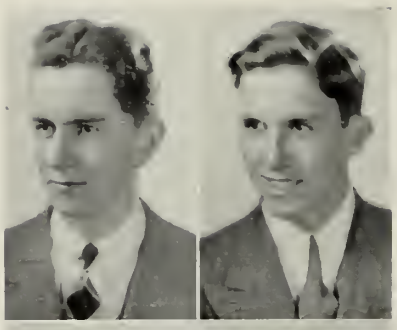
Eva M. Christenson

"Va-va," a quiet, demure girl in our class, is very efficient with the needle. Although she loves needlecraft and hopes that she will be a sewing teacher, we doubt very much that she will remain one long, for somehow sweet girls like Eva just aren't found teaching sewing in schools.

Alfred L. Clapp

Cadet Lieutenant, School Dance Orchestra

"Al" is one of the attractive members of our class. Besides this he is a good musician. When playing his cornet, he presents a picture that makes the ladies look as well as listen.



Thomas P. Condron

Baseball, Dramatics

"Pat" is a happy mixture of reserve and sociability. "Nick" has the odd hobby of collecting old newspapers. He may some day collect them to read of his own fine baseball playing at Boston College where he is now headed.

Kathleen M. Clifford

Social Committee

"Kay" is delightfully feminine. She has ability to see the funny side of a situation, a quality that she has demonstrated many times. Although she is a grand swimmer, she excells in daneing. Her business-like efficieney is going to help her to become an outstanding secretary some day.

Margaret M. Conlon

Margaret is not seen in her home room very often as she belongs to a group in 124. When we do see her, her radiant smile captures us. She helps her classmates at every opportunity. Her favorite sport is swimming.

Alice E. Cobban

Year Book Committee

"Al" is already worried about old age. We all hope she is well taken eare of. She has a great sense of humor, which never seems to fail her. Her cheerful face has brightened Roslindale High's students many times.

Mary E. Connolly

"Tiny" Mary is the life of every party. She is full of vitality and is a great dancer. She hopes to become a court stenographer, and will no doubt succeed.

Margaret G. Cokely

"Peggy" is gifted with an optimistic view of life. Her ambition is to be a stenographer to a non sit-down striker. She is a great cook so take note. We hope, however, that her ambition will be realized.

Julia Conti

Setting up Drill, Senior Patrol

Juliet's Romeo has been found! Her ability to do Math. problems has finally attracted attention. She wants to be a school teacher so that she ean teach her favorite subiect. Her hobby is driving a car but we say, "Leave that to Romeo."

Elizabeth A. Conboy

Although "Betty" used to be very quiet, she is beginning to become very talkative, so the teachers say. As she believes that "the early bird catches the worm" she is always one o" the first at school. Her good nature will uphold her in her life's work, and we know that she is bound to succeed.

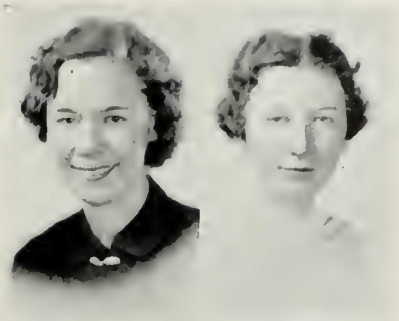
Mary A. Coppola

Student Council, Adv. Mgr. Year Book Committee, Senior Council

Happy-go-lucky, "Babe" is welcome everywhere. She is a very sociable classmate and does everything with a very great ease. She wishes to see 'merica first and then Europe. We hope she may some day have her wish.

Cecilia M. Corrigan

Extremely quiet and inconspicuous, petite "Cis" is the dainty-adorable, yet full-of-pep type. Her one ambition in life is to be 65 and collect Social Security, and we wish her all the luck in the world.



Grace D. Curran

Grace has a very catchy smile and a fun-loving disposition; but this does not interfere with her studying, as she is an excellent student. She would like to come back to R. H. S. as a teacher. Her hobbies are tennis and dressmaking.

Mary S. Coveney

Full of fun, and anxious to be a file clerk is Mae. She has aroused a spark in everyone's heart with her wit and smile. Those who know her more intimately can tell you lots about that quiet subtle wit she possesses.

Phyllis E. Curren

Likable "Phil" with a pretty smile and a pleasing manner, hides herself in the activities of basketball, tennis and her hobby of taking snap shots. A seat in Simmons is to be hers.

Catherine M. Crowley

Glee Club, Style Show

S. O. S. Catherine wants to be able to do her gym exercises. Who diverts her mind from this aim? Incidentally, do you know that Kay writes poetry?

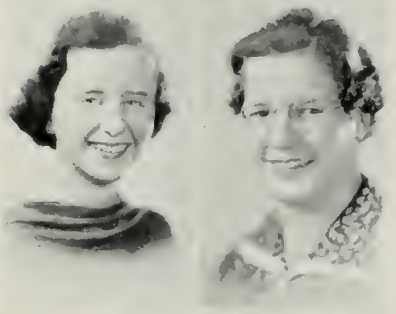
Mary L. Daly

Basketball, Tennis

Tennis and ping-pong are her hobbies. Fair complexion and lovely red hair are her attractions. "Beautiful but dumb" does not apply to Mary, for she has it in her to make a good record at Burdett.

Kathryn J. Cullen

Here is a cute little miss who is a swimmer and a horse back rider. "Kay" is looking forward to being a private secretary.



Dorothy L. Darby

Drill Leader

A well-known figure is our "Dot," for she is a drill leader and an Athletic Club Representative. Her ambition is to be a kindergarten teacher. Success in the future, "Dot."

Claire L. Cummings

Senior Council

Large blue eyes (she rolls them, too) and attractive auburn hair make up pretty Claire, our Senior Councillor. We'll see her soon as a private secretary.

Edna L. Davis

Drill Leader, Fashion Show

"Giggle and the room giggles with you." Attractive Edna has a contagious one. She participated in the style show, but her main interests are in music and art. "Eddie" may be seen dashing here, there, and everywhere. Her occupation in the future must be active to satisfy her.

Marie De Cristofaro

Drill Leader, Verse Choir

Marie, a well-liked member of our class, has a happy smile for everyone. She took part in the Verse Speaking Choir and is a drill leader. Chris collects books and plays tennis and golf. She wants to become a private secretary. Success to you, Marie!

Katherine G. Diamond

"So quiet and calm is this pretty lass,
'Tis hardly known she's attending class."

When there is a chance for swimming or dancing, however, "Kay" is among the liveliest. We wish her luck in her ambition to be an accountant.

Marion L. Dennehy

After finding success as a stenographer, "Toots" wants to sail the seven seas. Marion plays basketball, skates, and dances.

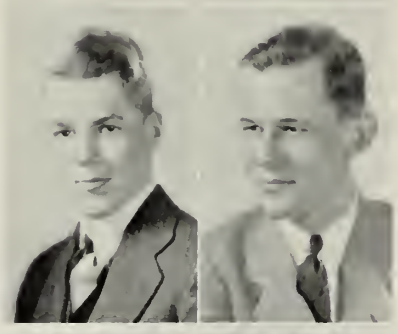
Lena Di Cicco

Lena, working silently and patiently, accomplishes a lot. She has the qualities that make for success. When she becomes a teacher, which she hopes to do, her long vacation will give her time to satisfy her desire for travel.

Robert de Veer

Football Captain, Baseball

"Peanuts," a fine athlete, proved his worth and capability as leader of our football team. He is a quiet fellow during school hours, but once outside, he is full of pep and vigor.



Frederick J. Diettrich

Cadet Lieutenant, Year Book Committee

When someone named "Zeke" applies for a position as a G-man that's news. Well, "Zeke" Diettrich, a quiet, efficient, worker is going to become a G-man. Collecting stamps is what takes up his time when he isn't studying.

John De Virgilio

Cadet Lieutenant

Desiring to become a draftsman, Johnny has certainly started off on the right foot by his conscientious work this year. A music lover, Devec has learned to play the accordion.

John A. Doherty

Cadet Lieutenant, Year Book Committee

"Honest John" is kept in a cage every noontime; but it is only to sell lunch checks. He is a good natured pal and a sincere friend.

Frances E. Deylon

Drill Leader, Winner in Spelling Bee, Tennis Tournament

"With a smile on her face." That pictures happy-go-lucky "Fran." With her cheerful personality she should surely succeed as a buyer or a receptionist.

"Fran" is a setting up drill leader. Her hobbies are cooking and collecting toy dogs.

Elizabeth L. Dolan

Hail to the "Duchess"! a charming lass who collects tie pins. She has an inquiring mind which is evidenced by her fondness for the word "Why." To be a cosmetician is her goal.

Thomas P. Dolan

Vice President of Class, Cadet Captain, Football, Prom Committee, Year Book Committee

"Tom's" accomplishments are so great in proportion to his size, that he has proved the truth of the old adage: "Good things come in small packages." He has, however, a bad habit of stealing spoons.

Dorothy A. Dunning

"First Class Secretary or bust" is "Dotty's" motto. This attractive dark-eyed brunette loves ice skating and enjoys telling 'okes. Her desire is to further her education by attending Boston University.

Lillian B. Dolle

"Number, please?" Dolly's charming voice will be heard in the future asking this familiar question. This attractive young miss is fond of social activities, and likes to be on the go.

Florence C. Early

Though circumstances have not permitted us to see Florence a great deal, we know that she is a bright, earnest girl with a lot of grit. She has gained quite a reputation as a violinist. We hope she will be with us in the future at our reunions.

Aldona A. Dragasius

"Allie," a peppy, grey-eyed blonde, has several hobbies. She likes to collect souvenirs and pictures. She is an aviation fan, and may yet equal or out do Amelia Earhardt. She has an urge to do stunt flying. Good luck, and happy landings, "Allie."

Edna C. Engelhardt

We are sure that dark-eyed and studious "Eddie" will certainly succeed in preparing to enter a commercial school. Studying does not take up all her time. Edna enjoys barn dances, tennis, and swimming. She is the secretary of her salesmanship class.

Milda B. Dragasius

Prom Committee

Mix pep, vim and vigor, and you have "Millie." Being a member of the dance committee was right in her line. She is an energetic tennis player. She wants to be a confidential secretary. Success is in store for our honor pupil of 124.

Marguerite J. English

Senior Patrol

"Margie" (of the giggles) is a very good student and well liked by her classmates. She hopes to enter the Boston Clerical School and study to become a private secretary, for which she is admirably suited naturally.

Madeleine M. Duclos

Madeleine likes outdoor sports. She plays a good game of tennis and is an excellent swimmer. These recreations do a lot to make her summers at Minot enjoyable.

Louise D. Farrenkoff

Senior Patrol

"Lou" is the inseparable auburn haired pal of "Margie" English. With her unsurpassed marks we are sure she will succeed in becoming an A-1 secretary as well as the A-1 student she was in high school. When not fulfilling her duties as a secretary Louise will spend her time painting.

Mary A. Feeney

Red Cross representative

Red curls, a friendly smile, and abundant vitality—such is "Rusty." What gives her that alert sit-up? Perhaps her favorite sport of horseback riding.

She aspires to be a designer.

Theresa M. Flaherty

Room 124 proudly introduces the tennis "champ" of Roslindale High. "Terry" is everyone's pal and our typical outdoor girl. She likes swimming, but her hopes for becoming an Eleanor Holmes are checked. Theresa is going to be a nurse.

Leone A. Field

Fashion Show

Swing music brings the smile to "Babe's" face, and that smile brings cheer to everybody around her. "Babe" is quite enthusiastic about tennis. She loves physical culture, and hopes to be an instructor in that subject later on.

Myrtle M. Flotow

"Good things come in small packages," "Peanuts" is no exception. Myrtle's pleasant disposition will aid her as a governess. "Peanuts" pleasure derives from collecting elephants. Don't get lost in this big wide world, Myrtle.

Norman R. Fisher

Cadet Lieutenant, Student Council, Senior Council, Football, Baseball, Track, Prom Committee Year Book Committee

"Randy," one of our most active and popular fellows, invites us all to visit his luxurious steam-yacht when he becomes an oil magnate.

Rosemarie Flynn

Drill Leader, Senior Patrol

Popular, fun-loving "Rosie" is a great conversationalist. She likes swimming, but thinks picking holes out of doughnuts is too, too, wonderful." Her pet ambition is to graduate from the Teachers College.

Violet S. Fischer

Glee Club, Drill Leader, Student Council, Year Book Committee

"Vi" is one of the most cooperative pupils in R. H. S. and has many staunch friends. As a hobby she collects pictures of animals in her spare time. "Vi" will become a private secretary some day.

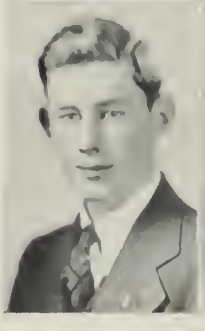
Elizabeth A. Foley

Just a line or two to let you know about a petite brown-eyed girl. "Libby" is very fond of skating. She has enjoyed her secretarial course and hopes to benefit by it professionally later on.

Joseph J. Fitzpatrick

Spanish Club, Year Book

"Joe," who is likely to break out any time on his harmonica, is a quiet but quick witted gentleman, who certainly gets around. We sincerely wish Joe plenty of luck in his ambition to be a Foreign Service consul.



Louise E. Freyberg

Louise has a calm disposition and a quiet manner. Her chief hobby is reading. As we see her sitting with a book in her hand, she is the picture of contentment. She is very fond of swimming. Her ambition is to become a teacher.

Carleton R. Friberg

Cadet Lieutenant

"Carl," we understand, is quite adept in the art of drawing. He is one of the students who left "Aggy" at J. P. H. S. to come to our school and give us his pleasing personality. Carl still wants to be a landscape Architect, so our guess is that "Aggy" still haunts him.

Norma L. Friberg

Norma is one of our honor roll pupils. She does excellent work in school and will do just as good work as a private secretary later on.

Her favorite pastimes are sports, among which she prefers basket ball, swimming, and tennis.

Jean H. Gallant

Senior Council

Jean is a blue-eyed blonde with a very engaging personality. She has maintained a high standard in her studies all through her course. She hopes to do secretarial work later on.

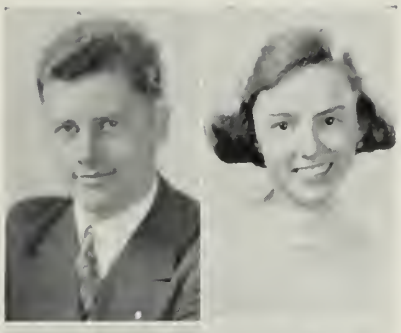
Nancy S. Gardner

Year Book Committee

Nancy is a great girl for sports, delighting especially in horseback riding and in sailing. Her heart's desire is to get a beach wagon. "Nip" would not mind if someone resembling Robert Taylor came into her future.

Doris F. Gauthier

Doris and Lorraine Glennon are great pals. Their nicknames are "Lorrie" and "Dorrie." Doris wants to be a private secretary. Her favorite sport is swimming. She always looks nice, because she has very attractive clothes. She is a friendly girl with a big smile for everyone.



Elizabeth Gibbs

"Betty" is a quiet girl with a sweet personality. She loves reading and swimming, and does very good work in school. After she gradnates from high school, she wants to go to Boston Clerical. After her training there, she is going to become a private secretary.

Helen D. Giuggio

Year Book Committee

Helen seems to be a pretty busy girl because her hobby is to try to stay in one night a week. This is the night she uses to keep up in her studies. She would make a very good nurse, and that is just what she wants to be.

Lorraine C. Glennon

"Lorrie" is a quiet and friendly girl whose hobby is keeping a scrap book. She wants to be a private secretary. She and Doris Gauthier are inseparable friends.

Phyllis M. Godfrey

Chairman of Prom Committee
Year Book Committee

"Phil" showed by the skillful manner in which she directed the preparations for the Prom that she has all the qualifications of a real business woman. At the Prom she displayed as much aptitude for fun as she had previously shown for work.

Emma R. Golding

Riding in airplanes is "Pepper's" hobby. She has a keen desire to learn how to pilot a plane herself. She has a pleasant personality and a great capacity for enjoyment.

Wallace Gould

Football, Senior Council, Year Book

The ever popular "Wally" won for himself unforgettable praise this year on the gridiron for R. H. S. "Wally's" hobby is raising pigeons. He hopes to be a doctor some day.

Charles R. Haskian

Cadet Captain, Student Council, Year Book, Red Cross

Meet "Charlie," the other half of Charles Haskian and Co., Inc. He is very sociable and a great fun maker. He likes to build airplane models, and he hopes to fly in a plane of his own some day.

Lillian Guilford

Student Council, Public Speaking, Year Book Committee

As Lillian isn't five feet tall, she may well answer to the name of "Shorty." What she lacks in height, she makes up for in fun and mischief. She loves swimming and diving, and can do both well.

Irene Henry

Secretary of Spanish Club

"Rena" is one of the most lovable girls in the whole school. She is lots of fun and very friendly to everyone. As she is very anxious to go to Emanuel College, she is studying faithfully.

Helen M. Hall

Year Book Committee

Helen has the prettiest blush in R. H. S. For this the boys call her "Rosie," and the girls, "Fluffie." She has high hopes of being a beautician some day, and we feel sure she will make good.

Audrey Higgins

Public Speaking Club, Red Cross

Audrey has a good sense of humor, the kind that takes in the fine points. She is a collector of autographs and of autographed pictures. Among the latter, Robert Taylor's is conspicuous. "Steve" is a good tap dancer. She wants to become a doctor.

Catherine M. Hampe

Catherine is one of the real students of the school. Study does not take the smile or the cheer from her face. "Kit's" most enjoyable hobby is driving a car. Dancing, from all accounts, will soon be added to her list of pastimes. She intends to enter Simmons College.

Virginia M. Hitchcock

Prom and Advertising Committees

Virginia did quite a lot of work in helping to prepare for our prom, which was a great success.

She loves horseback riding and goes out quite often.

"Jinney" wants to go to college after she graduates from high school.

Charles H. Haskian

"Sooky" would like to take time off from collecting bottle labels to become the manager of a Carrol store. This is as impossible, however, as separating him from his cousin. These two are as close in friendship as they are in name.

Wilhelmina M. Hoffman

School Orchestra

"Mimi" is very much devoted to her violin, and she loves music in general. She has high ambitions in the musical line. She is very fond of swimming. Her indoor sport is making scrapbooks.

Doris M. Hogan

Glee Club

Doris does some very fine drawing, and for that reason she wants to become an illustrator. Dancing is one of her hobbies. She makes some very interesting scrap books. "Dotty's" friendly, lovable nature has made her a great favorite.

Roberta E. Holmes

If you see a girl walking along with her voice lifted in song, you can almost be sure that it is "Bobbie." She loves to sing, although her hobby is reading. Most people have just one thing for their ambition, but just to be different, "Bobbie" has "lots of things" for hers.

Frances H. Ivan

Here we have a future beauty expert in our midst. It is "Frannie's" ambition to make people beautiful. She is a very good dancer and also loves tennis. "Frannie" plays many pranks, is lots of fun, and a very jolly companion.

Jeanette M. Jackson

Our "J. J." is quite an athlete. She loves skating, swimming, and hiking. Her serious ambition, however, is along secretarial lines, which she hopes to follow at the Boston Clerical School.

Frances M. Kade

"Fran" has been caught by the craze for collecting match covers, and she has a very good collection. She wishes to do office work in the future, especially the kind that includes shorthand and typewriting.

Virginia D. Kane

"Ginger" is one of the most popular girls in the school. She is a wonderful dancer and attends many parties. She is full of fun and has a very enjoyable personality. She desires to be a secretary when she graduates and would make a good one.

Arlene Keach

Arlene is a very good tennis player. She loves other sports as well. She desires very much to be a secretary, for she likes all kinds of office work. "Cleo" is a very jolly girl and always full of life.

Katherine F. Keleher

Fashion Show

"Kay" is one of the titian haired girls from West Roxbury. She plans to don the crisp white of a nurse upon her graduation. Her hobbies are drawing and swimming.

Mary F. Kelliher

Energetic with a compelling personality. A combination like that ought to help "Babs" become an efficient secretary or an A-1 lawyer. Tennis, her favorite pastime, will help keep her in good trim to win cases for Roslindale's graduates in years to come.

Gertrude M. Kenney

Fashion Show

Movies and talking seem to be "Gerties" hobby. After any holiday, if you want a brief review of some popular show playing in town, Gert's the one to head for. Her ambition is to make a million dollars.

Helen A. Kenny

"Sandy" dreams of going to Holland, a country that appeals strongly to her imagination. She dreams also of a certain secretarial position that we might mention. Now you know the causes of that dreamy look that comes into her eyes during study periods.

George Kontos

Football, Senior Council

"Konny's" smile always attracted the fair sex; but when he came off the football field last fall a wounded hero, then he was truly dangerous.

Anne M. Kerin

"Nan's" favorite indoor sport is dancing, and how she indulges in it. Her partners enioy it, too. Seriously, if things break right for her, she will probably be an authority on European affairs.

Adele P. Koopman

Adele is one of the best known girls in the school. Her pleasant personality and her interest in the activities of the school help to make many friends. Her hobby is dramatics, and she hopes to become a dramatic coach.

Dorothea M. Kern

Prom Picture Committee

"Dot" is another girl from 206 who is planning to usurp some radio entertainer's peace on the air waves. When she graduates, Ina Ray Hutton had better look out for Dot's sparkling personality.

Eleanor J. Kramer

Fashion Show

Mr. X, known only to "Bubbles," is soon going to have a very capable secretary. He may not know it, but "Bubbles" has fixed her mind on this as her goal. Her hobbies are dancing, roller skating, and horse back riding. Lots of luck, "Bubbles!"

Alice L. Kilduff

Here's Martha Raye II, otherwise known as "Lal." Her mouth is not quite as elastic as the famed Martha's, but her voice is just as good. At one time "Lal" was a drill leader, but now she devotes drill time to practicing for her career.

Ruth M. Ladue

Girls—if your brothers resemble Errol Flynn, keep them out of "Winchie's way." Her scrap books are full of the dashing Errol in as many poses as she can find, and she dreams of the day when she will meet him personally. "Winchie" is also a pretty good actress in various amateur dramatics.

Mildred S. Kneeland

Red Cross Rrepesentative

"Mil" is well-known in the West Roxbury Parkway district. She enioys horseback riding through the many bridle paths near her home. Other hobbies are swimming and dancing all the latest steps. She plans to be a secretary. Good luck, Mildred.

Anna Lavalle

Anna is an ambitious girl who has won her way into our class by excellent work. Anna's face usually wears an earnest expression; but, when a smile breaks through, it is contagious.

Lucille T. LeClair

"Terry's" favorite hobby is collecting banners, and she lets nothing interfere with it, so chain down the school banners or else . . . . Lucille wants to own an accordian and what's more, she wants to be able to play it well. Sweet music, "Terry!"

Doris L. MacGillivray

"Dot" has a smile for everyone, everywhere all the time. Dancing, roller-skating, and bowling occupy most of her leisure time. Some one will be lucky to have "Dot" for his secretary.

Francis A. Levangie

Baseball, Football, Track, Drill Leader

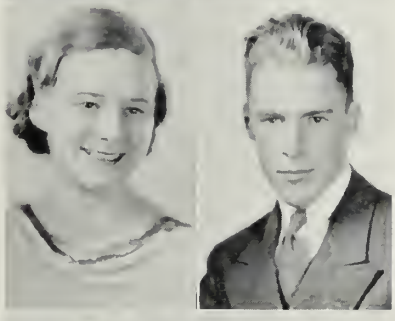
Francis has been nicknamed "Punch." No wonder; for he has starred and won letters in the things that require that quality. He also excells in swimming and hockey. He hopes to become an engineer.

Mary MacKay

What is the old saying about it, being lucky to pick up pins? Well! "Maizie" ought to have plenty of luck, as she collects pins. Sometime if she stops short in front of you, just be tolerant because she is adding to her collection. In the near future she hopes to meet Nelson Eddy.

Agnes I. Leverone

When "Ike" is seen so deeply engrossed in a book that the dismissal bell fails to disturb her, you can be sure it's connected with nursing. She plans to enter Whidden Memorial Hospital this fall to become one of the white clad corps of nurses.



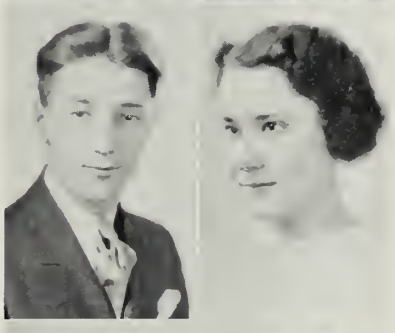
John B. Maher

Business Mgr. of Yearbook, Social Committee, Senior Council, Track

"Johnny," a well liked chap, is very active in class affairs. His popularity is evidenced by the fact that he missed the Vice-Presidency by one vote. His ambition is to become a good lawyer, when he can find time to leave his fishing.

Carman F. Lombardi

"Jumbo" is a great fellow in the shop but displays too much lung power in class. He aspires to be president. This will be a great rise from his present position of driver of a Mack Truck.



Mabel A. Mair

This rather small package labeled Fun is none other than "Peanut." She hopes there is someone in the graduating class who is smaller than she is and that some day she may enter a shoe store and hear something else besides: "No, we don't carry such a small size!"

Mary E. Lynch

Mary says that her hobby is studying Shakespeare. Well! Her aim is to enioy life to the utmost, and, being one of the liveliest as well as one of the most popular blondes in the school, she seems to be well on her way to fulfill her ambition.

Elizabeth L. Malone

Senior Council, Senior Patrol, Spanish Club, Year Book

"Penny's" favorite pastime is knitting. She could enioy travelling around the world with her knitting. She has an ambition to become a second Sonja Henie. She is also seriously ambitious, for she is an excellent student.

Helen M. McBride

A collector of snapshots. That's "Mickie." If you're one of her many friends, you're apt to find yourself in her collection. Helen hopes to enter Regis College; she is always so full of life and fun, that she will be an addition to any school.

Jeremiah M. McCarthy

Cadet Captain, Senior Council, Social Committee

"Jerry" likes everybody and everybody likes him. Somebody (?) has made school so pleasant for him that he wants to be connected with schools all his life. That's why he wishes to be a teacher.

Audrey L. McCarter

Student Council

First and foremost of the three senior McCarters is "Skippy." She's always on the go, but is never too busy to say a friendly "Hi" to a classmate. She loves to dance. She hopes to become a secretary, but we don't think she'll be one very long.

Dorothy M. McDermott

Millionaires watch out! When "Dot" is determined, she is determined—despite the playful look of those dimples. She has decided to marry a millionaire and make her life a continuous vacation—as vacations are her hobby.

Doris M. McCarter

Doris, another of the McCarter trio, is also known as "Mac." Her ambition is to do away with school so that she'll have more time for her hobby of skating. Doris makes friends easily, is an interesting conversationalist, and is always ready to listen to you.

Barbara T. McDonough

"Barb's" hobby is the collection of souvenirs, so "duck" when you see her coming with that collecting glitter in her eyes. She is also well known for the attractive and colorful smock she wears.

Ruth B. McCarter

"Mac" is the most widely known member of the McCarter clan. Whether you see her taking attendance slips outside the office, or talking to her friends, you know she is "packs of fun." She wants to be champion roller skater; so some day when she's champ, you can say, "I knew her when, etc."

Margaret V. McDonough

We've all heard of girls with hair as black as the raven's wing; that's "Peggy." Although apparently very quiet, she owns a fondness for talking at what she calls the wrong time. Her favorite form of exercise is swimming, and her ambition seems to be to excel in promptness.

Eleanor M. McCarthy

According to "El" she is going to be an old maid; but if she continues to attend those basketball games, her resolution will be ruined. Her ambition isn't interfering with her life, as she considers having a good time her hobby. We hope your basketball team always wins, "El."

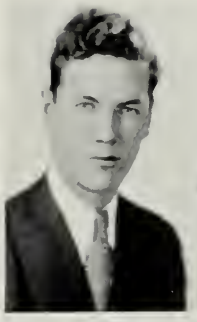
Louise M. McElaney

"Lou" seems to be quite interested in carrying a heavy Muzzey's History book about, but we have a hunch that it's not really such a hobby. She's merely training to carry those big law books around. "Lou" is one of the youngest girls in the class, and one of the brightest.

Albert McGowan

Football, Color Bearer

You won't have to look twice to find "Legs" McGowan. He has already achieved his hobby and ambition, which is getting into trouble and getting out of it again. He is the giant of R. H. S. who doesn't have to reach high for his secret passion—"Green Apples."



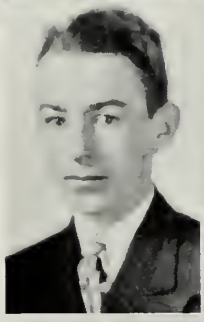
Esther B. McTernan

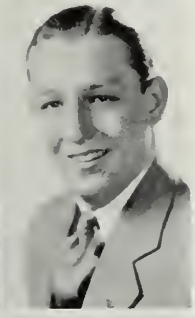
Esther's friendly manner and keen sense of humor make her a very enjoyable companion. Her outdoor sports are hiking and ice skating. She is training to be a secretary.

Thomas B. McHugh

Football Manager, Cadet First Lieutenant, Senior Council, Prom Committee, Year Book

In spite of the many activities mentioned above, "Tom" goes around the school with smiling unconcern. His keen aesthetic sense makes a "co-ed" school the right place for him.





Chester Micka

Cadet Captain, Football, Year Book

Chester is a little fellow, standing only six fe t high, and weighing only 180 pounds. "Chet" likes to travel, and spent last summer in Cuba. His ambition to teach in Girls' High may yet be realized.

Roberta McIntyre

"Bobbie" loves music and plays the piano beautifully. She keeps her fingers in fine shape by typing in school. Where she gets her artistic inspiration, only she can tell.

Edmund A. Miranda

Cadet Lieutenant

"Eddie" is the fellow whom everybody borrows from; but he says that he is going to make up for it by marrying a rich heiress. With "Riggie's" looks and personality this should not be hard.

Eleanor S. McKnight

Eleanor's pleasant smile, attractive personality, and excellence in secretarial subjects should easily win her a good place in the business world. Her place in society is equally assured.

Roberta W. Moody

Vivacious "Robin" moves nimbly and cheerfully about the building. She is just as spry on roller skates. Her great ambition is to travel around the world.

Richard H. McNeill

"Dick" is a boy who realizes that when he enters R. H. S., he is in an institution of learning. He acts accordingly, and is, therefore, preparing a good future for himself. Besides, his pleasant personality is going to smooth his way.

Mary E. Morse

Between telling stories and chewing gumdrops, "Noisy" presents quite an interesting character. Always mischievous and happy-go-lucky, she delights her many friends with "mighty fancy" stories. Martha's Vineyard is her favorite haunt.

Edward J. Moured

"Moe" hails from West Roxbury, and yet he is in school before 8.30 every morning. His ambition is to be a newspaperman. His conscientious work in school and his pleasing personality should some day make his ambition come true. Good luck, to you, "Moe."

Theresa A. Newman

Drill Leader

"Terry" wants to travel and see the world. What she can't see in reality, she likes to see in pictures, of which she is a collector.

James F. Murray

"Peter" spends his time and money collecting flashy ties. This is rather surprising as he is such a quiet boy otherwise. On gradnating, he intends to go to work and eventually become a chain-store manager.

Ralph M. Nicherson

First Lieutenant, in Cadets

"Still waters run deep." "Nichie" has no equal as a student of economics. Some day we expect to see his name on the rolls of Congress. He'll tell them.

Miriam F. Murray

Class Secretary, Senior Patrol, Dance Committee, Ring Committee, Tennis Tournament

Miriam, our class secretary, is of the "real pal" type. She is a ready, willing, and able worker. Can she be merry? Just watch her sparkling eyes. She has shown no little talent as an art critic.

Dorothea Norley

Art Editor of Year Book, Spanish Club

If you see "Dot" coming with a feverish glitter in her eye, don't get excited. She's just collecting dues for the Spanish Club, of which she is the treasurer. "Dot's" a promising artist, as can be seen by the posters she has made for the club. Her ambition is to attend art school.

Rita C. Murray

"Ginger" to us spells a quiet little girl in our class who loves to dance and to play tennis, both of which she does well. Her ambition to be a secretary will probably be fulfilled, as she loves the work, and "Where there's a will, there's a way."

Albert V. Nyren

Cadet Captain, Track Captain, Student Council, Chief Editor of Year Book, Spanish Club, Spelling Bee Winner

Though successful in many lines, Albert is delightfully modest. In class he is a keen thinker. Outside he is full of fun. At work or in sports, "Al" is a rock of strength.

Evelyn Nelson

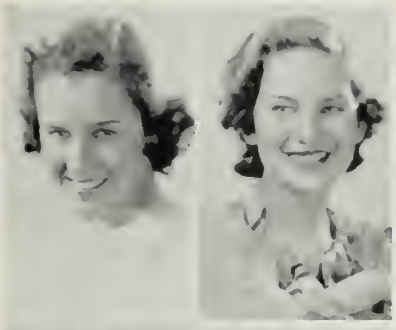
"Chickie" is one of the Three Musketeers in Roslindale. She hopes to join her friends at Simmons and to become a certified public accountant. She is well known in West Roxbury as a very good dancer. Other hobbies include swimming, skating and horse back riding. Her charm and popularity are bywords.

Gladys F. Oberacker

Gladys "made the papers" this year when she won the award for her poster. She likes photography, tennis and drawing. This winter's lack of solid ice was a disappointment for her because she has pet notions about thin ice and breaking through. "Sandy" is one of Roslindale's "Three Musketeers.

Mary P. O'Brien

"Obie" on horseback is a familiar figure on our local bridle paths. Her indoor sport is tap dancing, at which she is very clever.



Hilda M. Oliver

"Hillie," the dark-eyed actress of R. H. S., is ambitious to become a nurse. She will be a cheerful one if her present happy smile and pleasant wit stay with her. Dancing and acting are her hobbies.

Eileen M. O'Connor

Year Book Editor, Debating Club

"Okie" is always on the go, her rich hair flying as she dashes from one task to another. That her mind "can go," too, is evidenced by her clear thinking in her classes and in the Debating Club.

Walter A. Orall

"Peanut" is the pride of Roslindale, and also of his Economics class, where his voice can be heard over all. His ambition is to win the sweepstakes and then retire.

Miriam E. O'Connor

Miriam might well hope to fill a position like Walter Winchell's on the radio; for her alert mind makes her a rapid-fire talker. She has other ambitions, however, as she is planning to go to college. Her good humor and pleasant wit will make her welcome anywhere.

Dorothy Patch

"Dot" is another of the Three Musketeers. She can always be relied upon to fit her companion's moods. Salesmanship seems to occupy most or her school time, although whispering isn't far behind. Swimming and skating are her outdoor hobbies. She hopes to attend the Burroughs School.

Rosemary O'Hara

Picture Committee

"Romie" is always ready to crash into any kind of fun. She loves to skate and swim, and to pick up a broken leg or two while doing so. Her stroke with a tennis racket is something we all wish we could copy. "Math" (so she says) is her favorite subject.

Doris C. Patterson

Drill Leader, Gym Captain

"Pat" wants to be an amateur dress designer although she fears no one would wear what she designed. We have different ideas on that subject. "Pat" always has a pleasant smile and a good word for everyone.

George R. Ohlson

Baseball, Drum Major, Jazz Orchestra

"Swede," one of the stars of our baseball team, intends to become a professional ball player. Besides being a fine athlete, "Swede" is a musician of some accomplishments and hopes to have his own orchestra some day.

Angela M. Pennini

"Angie" finds contentment in reading, drawing, and sewing. For recreation she loves to ride a bicycle. She hopes to attend business school.

Eleanor E. Perkins

Student Council

"Perky" is the charming young lady who grew up all of a sudden. She is quite a mimic, and delights her friends with interesting conversations. Among her other achievements she is an accomplished tap dancer.

Adeline G. Pokat

Red Cross, Year Book, Drill Leader, Senior Patrol

"Poki" alternately wants to be a lawyer and a librarian. She loves to spend time in the libraries with the large encyclopedias. She enjoys swimming, tennis, and ice skating. "Ad" is always full of fun and "raring to go."

Margaret Perry

Senior Patrol

"Peg" has a most pleasing smile. When it disappears from her face, it is still in her eyes. What pleasant thoughts must be behind it. "Peg" loves swimming and roller-skating.

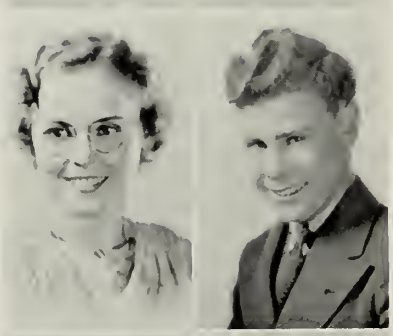
Margaret M. Rattery

Shining eyes and a lovely smile are always present when one meets "Peggy." She is quiet, but her friends are many because of her sincerity and thoughtfulness. Her hobby is dancing. Her ambition is to go to Saint Catherine's College in Minnesota.

Claire L. Peterson

Year Book Committee

"Pete" hopes to be a scientist. Her clear, studious mind ought to make success certain. It is said her style of writing has a real literary touch. She is much interested in art, and was one of the representatives of this school in the contest conducted by the Boston Art Museum.



Louis W. Rheaume

Cadet Captain

"Blondie" rarely has a minute to spare when he arrives at school. Does he need an alarm clock, or is he detained on the way by pleasant company? One guess is enough.

Rita L. Phee

Rita is looked upon by her classmates as a very congenial girl, who sees the best in everybody and treats all alike. As she has the qualities that make for success, she ought to make a good private secretary, which she hopes to be.

Mildred L. Richenburg

Year Book Editor

"Millie" a real student and a real girl, wishes to become an architect. May the masterpieces of the architect, "Millie," be a pretty little home for the girl "Millie."

Alison B. Pike

Glee Club, Year Book Committee

Though quiet and studious this lovable girl merits her nickname "Sunny." She is noted for singing in quartets and in the Glee Club. Teniquoit is her favorite game. Colby is her goal.

John C. Rogers

"Flash's" pleasing personality makes him a favorite among his classmates. He is an excellent ball player, and also does well at hockey. He is studying to be an accountant.

Thomas Romanske

Track, Baseball, First Lieutenant in Drum Corps

"Romey's" ambition is to smoke a whole cigar. He will never sueeeed in this until he gives up his unprofitable poker playing. "A thing of joy is a beauty forever," is his motto.

Annette D. Sarnie

"Annie" of the beautiful hair impresses one first as being fond of the old adage, "Silence is golden." In the right company, however, she goes off the gold standard and displays a wealth of merriment.

Helen M. Ronca

"Ronny" is a very friendly girl with a pretty wit. She numbers among her hobbies, walking, dancing, and swimming. All of these should help make her a sturdy nurse, which it is her ambition to become.

Doris E. Savage

Senior Patrol

Doris is the type of girl who enjoys the very best wishes of all her classmates. She likes outdoor sports, especially skating and swimming. She is also fond of daneing. Her ambition is to become a private secretary.

Armando A. Rossi

President of the Spanish Club, Cadet First Lieutenant

"Rossi" is a music lover who would rather listen to his favorite erooner than to do his homelessons. In spite of this, Armando always brings home a report card to be proud of.

Winifred M. Scheele

Picture Committee

"Winnie" will always be remembered for her witty remarks and her pleasant disposition. Can you pieture her knitting? "Winnie's" favorite sport is swimming; and ean she swim?" She is preparing for college.

Phyllis A. Ruggiero

"Phyl," the attractive young lady who uses her big dark eyes to advantage, aspires to be a secretary. Her favorite sport is tennis, but she also likes dancing and swimming.

Madelon G. Schiano

Student Council, Senior Patrol

This even tempered girl, whom everyone likes, does not deserve her nickname, "Mad." Her talent as a eomedienne has caused some to regard her as a feminine Joe E. Brown. "Mad" is planning to be a dietician.

Charlotte R. Rumbel

"Charlie" is one of us, and a good one; but she has reason, we suspect, for thinking wistfully of Sharon High School, Sharon, Pa., whence she came. That reason paid her a visit recently, so the town crier says. "Charlie" loves dancing and swimming. She hopes to be a secretary.

Ruth E. Schneider

"Rudy" has an even disposition and is easy to look at. Have you ever seen the figure eight she euts in the ice? In future years when we are sick, wouldn't we be fortunate to have "Rudy" as a nurse?

Eleanor M. Schworer

Petite as "Ellie" is she is certainly popular in school shows She is always called upon to tap, and she does tap right into the hearts of her audience. We know (as Eleanor hopes) that she will be an accomplished dancer some day.

Charlotte M. Simpson

Senior Patrol, Year Book Writer

"Charlotta" is a willing worker whether on patrol or at her lessons. She reads a fine assortment of books. For recreation she engages in ping pong. She has a very genial disposition.

Margaret Scott

The auburn-haired girl from Room 225 is "Peggy." She can be found almost any time at the roller skating rink. She assists at the school office, where she will no doubt get some of the training she needs to become a secretary.

Andre L. Sommer

"Andy," the Beau Brummel of Room 112, has a great capacity for enjoyment. He, taking a very optimistic view of life, sees a lot of good times ahead.

Sylvia B. Seminara

One girl we can never forget is "Sylvia," who is one of the best natured members of this class. Beware, however, of setting her giggling. She loves tennis and goes at it with boyish vim.

Anne Sorenson

There is only one in a million who could have the personality "Ginger" has. You should see her when she goes horseback riding. Her ambition is to attend Boston University.

Alice J. Sexton

A pleasant girl to look at and to speak to, is "Al," who believes the best two sports are dancing and swimming. She is going to Regis College, where she will surely attend all the proms.

Constance S. Spavin

"Connie," though quiet in manner and disposition, loves a vigorous ride on horseback. In the evening she sometimes plays ping pong. She hopes to attend the Wheelock training school for teachers.

Isabella Shea

"Bunny" is one of the few girls in R. H. S. who is glad to provide poems and lyrics for every occasion. This lyric and poetry writing has sent "Is" a step on the way to her ambition—song writing. "Is" has a grand and jolly personality along with her well known habit of giggling.

Elizabeth H. Sundlie

"Beth" is usually quiet and serious; but, when she smiles, just watch those dimples. Skating and dancing are her favorite pastimes. She is a good student now, and hopes to be a better one when she gets to college.

Virginia M. Tierney

"Jinnie" is one of the most likeable girls in the class. She is quiet and sweet, but very alert. Her favorite sport is tennis. She is a good student and hopes to continue her education at a business college.

Marjorie M. Viles

"Midge" is a dark-haired maiden whom one must know to appreciate. She is very active on ice skates. "Midge" intends to continue her education at Regis College.

Matthew E. Trask

"Mattie" has a very good sense of humor, with which he amuses his friends. We'll need such an entertainer at our future reunions: so keep your wit brushed up, "Mattie."

Elizabeth A. Wall

The "fair and tall" type is well represented in our class by "Betty." Besides this she has a sweet smile and a winning way. She likes all sports. Speaking Spanish is one of her accomplishments.

Richard F. Travers

Year Book Committee, Social Committee, Orchestra, Football, Baseball

"Reary" is noted for his pleasing disposition and perpetual smile. He is a capable performer on both the clarinet and the saxaphone. He loves the subject of discipline so much that he often stays after school to discuss it.

Isabel J. Wall

R. H. S.'s number one book worm is "Betty." She lives in the world of books; but not always, for she is fond of active camping life. She intends to enter a business school after graduation.

Mary E. Uriot

Senior Council, Business Committee, Social Committee

"Terry" is known and liked for her fine disposition. She is willing to do her share, and more, in school activities. Dancing is her favorite pastime. She hopes to become a private secretary.

Jane L. Walley

If Jane likes to look in the mirror, there's a reason. Besides being favored in this way she is also a gifted swimmer and dancer. Having a taste for art, she plans to become an interior decorator.

Helen Y. Vance

Class Treasurer, Prom Committee, Business Committee, Ring Committee, Senior Patrol, First Lieutenant

"Vaney," one of the most active members of our class, has worked hard to make our undertakings successful. Strange as it may seem, "Peppy" wants to be a pathologist.

Charlotte V. Weigold

This dark-eyed lass, known as "Chickie," finds much enjoyment in collecting funny snapshots. She is also fond of bowling, at which she is very clever. She expects to do clerical work after graduation.

Claire F. Whelan

"Pussy" is a girl of a kindly, generous nature, always willing to lend a helping hand to both her classmates and her teachers. She is quietly attentive to her school work, and will no doubt be the same when she becomes a secretary.

Eva V. Williamson

Eva, being of rather a conservative disposition, would make an excellent confidential secretary. "Sunny's" skill as a skater and a swimmer has only recently come to light. That's "Sunny."

Anna M. Wholey

"Ann" wears a rather serious look on her face until a smile breaks it into bright dimples. Then she looks radiant. Seeing her at the ticket table selling lunch checks gives one the impression that she would make an excellent saleslady, but she wants to do office work.

Barbara Wilson

"Barb" is the efficient type who always does well whether at work or at play. She is very fond of bicycle riding and of skiing. She hopes to work in a publishing house after she has graduated from Simmons.

Helen M. Wholey

Room 225 would not be complete without fair-haired Helen, for her pleasant personality spreads cheer about her. Although she likes dancing, she derives more fun from driving a car. She hopes to find a position later on in a school office.

Roland N. Woll

Cadet Captain, Student Councillor, Baseball, Dramatics, Year Book, Variety Show, Social Committee

Besides being active and versatile "Swede" has a winning way. That's what makes him so desirable in our many activities.

Norman W. Wiedeman

"Wheaties" is an expert in the science of model airplane building. He must eat lots of Wheaties judging from the vigor with which he performs the setting-up-drill.

Lillian E. Young

"Lil," one of the many blondes of 225 likes all aquatic sports such as fishing, swimming, and yachting. She is a very quiet girl around school, but ask the "Beau Brummel" of R. H. S. if she is outside. To be a stenographer is "Lil's" ambition.

Mary E. Young

If you ever see a lass sitting on a stone wall, with long legs dangling in the water and a narrow pole in her hands, it's sure to be "Youngie," for she loves to go fishing! As Mary is very smart and clever in bookkeeping, we are sure she will make good in public accounting!

John E. Donovan

"Silent John" seems to be the young member of our class. Although few are intimate with him, they say that he is a "swell guy." The "Hawaiian" hopes some day to work for the government in some branch of the outdoor service.

Frances M. Hallahan

Here is a girl who wants to be a reporter. As she has a "nose for news," she'd make a good one. "Fran" is a great baseball fan. Among her other hobbies is short story writing. "Fran" has a keen sense of humor and is lots of fun.

Alice M. Hansen

This little girl is exactly 4 feet 11 inches of fun and laughter. "Al" loves to dance and can be seen at quite a few parties. Her ambition is to be a secretary, and she'd make a nice one, too, for she is so pleasant to have around.

Herbert E. Johnson

School Orchestra

"Introducing that red-hot clarinet player, 'Farmer Johnson'." In such terms "Herb" hopes to be presented by Major Bowes some day.

George Pulsifer

First Lieutenant Cadets

A scholar and a gentleman; that's George. He is a quiet fellow and says nothing until asked to, but then what he says amounts to something. He looks forward to the day when he will be an advertising manager. Here's wishing you success, George.

Evelyn I. Shea

This nimble-footed maiden from Forest Hills craves dancing and swimming. "Evy" would make a good executive, as she can get service. For example, her books are carried home for her by a friend—not a girl.

Rose F. Tortora

"Toto" is a calm, restful sort of girl in school; but, when she gets into the water she rivals the fishes in activity. She is one of our best swimmers. In order to become a Laboratory Technician, she will try for a Bachelor of Science degree at Simmons.

CLASS PROPHECY

From local gossip, from the stage and screen, from every corner of the country, and even from foreign lands has come the latest news of that most famous of pioneers—the first graduating class of Roslindale High. Its members who started out on life's uncertain and perilous road just ten years ago this very day with naught but hard earned diplomas as their only weapons, have succeeded amazingly in all fields of endeavor and have managed, through thick and thin, to hold high the standards and spirit of our fair, beloved Alma Mater. Bravo, Fellow Class-mates! Roslindale's proud of you!

Imagine my surprise at this choice bit of news! Betty Bridges, once a sweet and modest scholar, has cultivated a voice (under Mr. Tierney's guidance), and is now skyrocketing to fame as a blues singer in gay New York. . . . Tom Dolan, dear trusty Tom, has been running things "high, wide, and handsome" up thar in the wilds of Hyde Park. . . . Flash from Washington—Our own Helen Vance is still counting money; now, however, for Uncle Sam, the lucky fella! . . . News Item: Al Nyren, that versatile lad, is expected to bring home honors as a member of the U. S. Olympic Track Team. My! my! is there no limit to that boy's accomplishments? . . . Speaking of sports, you all know of course that Tom McHugh is now a well-known sports writer, who never fails to mention those two big league heart-breakers, Henry Canty and George Ohlsen, in his articles and radio talks. . . . It's murmured about that Madeline Shiano is trying her mightiest to be serious and has gone as far as to establish a Home for Wayward Children in South America. . . . Johnnie Maher, that former shrewd business manager, is now posing for collar ads—'member his nice complexion? . . . I understand that among those ambitions, young secretaries, Kay Clifford, Mary O'Brien, Mary Uriot, and Mary Coppola have forsaken the office for the kitchen. I might have guessed that would happen! . . . Noticed around Boston—That pompuous and chubby new mayor of ours, the Honorable Wally Gould, still manages to tuck a dazzling bow-tie under his favorite chin. . . . Flash from Hollywood—Bob Adair and Roland Woll are now providing stardom's leading men with keen competition—Bob as a matinee idol, and Woll as a hilarious comedian. . . . I hear that Maura Adler, Theresa Flaherty, and Claire Petersen have been making a fine job of nursing patients, especially those with broken hearts, at an exclusive hospital. . . . I understand that Georgie Kontos, alias Uncle Benny, is now thrilling tiny tots with Mother Goose stories over the N. B. C. network. . . . From the frozen North comes news that those gentlemen of rhythm, Dick Travers and Herb Johnson, have both given up promising careers in law to teach the Eskimos just how to swing it! . . . I've heard gossiped about that Betty Malone, Alison Pike, Betty Benson, and Adeline Pokat are having loads of fun running a circulating library down in Dixie. . . . Here is an interesting item!—Norman Fischer and Jack Doherty are now excellent authorities on "How to subdue a rebellious whiffle." . . . Would Old Broadway, be the same without Guy Cammarata's smooth band, Eleanor Schworer's dancing feet, and Jerry McCarthy's wise-cracks? . . . Flash from Hawaii—That dashing salesman Charles R. Haskian is now selling steam-heated radiators to the natives all of which doesn't surprise me a bit. I have just finished a book by the Dragasius sisters, Aldona and Milda, Fran Deylon, and Fran Ivan on "How to Throw the Perfect Jam"—very educational. . . . Surely you've noticed that the Boston Museum of Fine Arts has been made even more colorful and alluring by contributions from the world-famous artists, Gladys Oberacker and Edmund Andrews. 'Member when they were both Miss Aznive's promising proteges? . . . I've discovered that Ruth Bell, Jean Gallant, and Phyllis Curran have been making oodles of money in their own sandwich shoppe. It seems that prominent business men are lured there by more than just luscious food. . . . Ladies attention! Latest news has it that Rosemary O'Hara and Mary Feeney are startling the world of fashion with their chic creations which seem lovelier still when modeled by Isabel Shea, Ginger Sorenson, Elinor Brauer, and Mary Buccigross. . . . Mildred Riehenburg and Carleton Friberg have been revolutionizing the field of science with their latest theories and experiments. . . . As you all know the two O'Connors have added glory to their name as well as to our fair school, Eileen as a well-known public speaker, and Miriam as society editor for one of our largest newspapers. . . . Familiar scene on one of our local bridge paths, Dot Norley, Elizabeth Conboy, and Betty Chellman bouncing along merrily, if not too expertly, on prancing steeds. . . . I have been informed from a very reliable source that Elizabeth Wall, Winnie Scheele, Madaline Duclos, Rita Phee, Evelyn Nelson, and Dot Patch are now busily arranging a very elaborate prom—"for sweet charity's sake"—a perfectly grand idea! . . . Observed in a well-known Chicago paper, Al McGowan is proving to equal his popular predecessor, Walter Winchell, in spreading the latest gossip. He always seems to mention such popular young ladies as Helen Hall, now a lovely model, Lillian Young, Broadway's sensational actress, and Mary Morse, the recent winner of the annual sail boat races at Martha's Vineyard. . . . I gather from several reports that Claire Whelan, Irene Henry, Phyllis Ruggiero, and Eleanor McKnight are brightening up former dismal offices with their "what it takes". . . . Those ambitious, brave, and patient souls, Julia Conti, Charlotte Simpson, Audrey Higgins, and Norma Friberg have now joined the ranks of those unsung heroines, the Boston school teachers. . . . Scores of other flashes have come to me from all parts of the country, all to the tune of domesticity. Many of those girls who were most ambitious for a career have found life's happiness in the blissful obscurity of home, teaching little feet how to walk.—Miriam Frances Murray

CLASS WILL

Know ye all men by these presents, that we, the first graduating class of Roslindale High School, being worn in mind and body from four years of labor and study, do make and proclaim this to be our last will and testament:

To Mr. Warren—We leave our thanks, and best wishes for a long and pleasant future as headmaster of this school.

To Mr. Murray—We leave the football, track and baseball teams practically intact.

To Major Kelley—We leave a bunch of leather-lunged officers all on the Honor Roll.

To Miss Guiney—We cheerfully leave Guitteau, Muzzey, and Magrader.

To Mr. O'Brien—We leave thirteen fountain pens (all broken) two wallets (empty), two sneakers (not mates), and various other lost articles.

To Miss O'Shea—We leave the trials and tribulations of directing the activities of another much larger Senior Class.

To Mr. Coulin—We leave a compact, precise, intelligent, original and diligent Year Book Staff.

To Mr. Hartigan—We leave an amplifying system so that the pupils in the rear seats of his very large room can hear him.

To Mr. McGregor—We leave three whole classes of Trigonometry students.

To Miss Fitzgerald—We leave the office records and a non-caramel-chewing class.

To Miss Neal—We leave a carload of matches so the boys in her science class won't be embarrassed.

To Miss Carter—We leave a new victrola, lots of balls, a net, and a whistle.

To Miss Grandfield—We leave a Geometry Class that really can learn propositions and an algebra class that can tell x from x.

To Miss Connor—We leave the no easy task of "Frenchifying" Roslindale.

To Mr. Gately—We leave a larger school for which to prepare a program.

To Miss Consodine—We leave a dozen boys who love French well enough to take four years of it.

To Mrs. Gookin—Leaves typewriters that don't break over night.

John Maher—We leave his grey hairs to the next business manager.

Charles Haskian leaves some slightly used campaign speeches and posters to a more successful candidate.

Tom Dolan and Jack Doherty cheerfully leave their cages at lunch time.

Dick McNeill leaves a thumb tack on each chair in Room 125.

Elizabeth Wall gladly leaves her task as program planner for the Spanish Club.

Julia Conti leaves the black board covered with numerous games of tit-tat-too.

Roland Woll leaves several haunting notes from his harmonica as a reminder of the variety show.

Theresa Flaherty leaves her title of tennis queen.

Ruth Bryant leaves her art posters as a spur to those coming.

Helen Kenney leaves her conspicuous seat in Choral Practice.

Miranda, Fitzpatrick and Co. leave Miss Starrinos a well organized Red Cross unit.

Betty Bridges, Guy Cammarata, and Armando Rossi evacuate their positions as presidents of the School, Student Council, and Spanish Club, respectively.

"Major" Rheaume left on the last track for Providence and points south.

Jumbo Lombardi leaves us with an impression of an overworked phonograph.

Tom McHugh leaves a well-chewed piece of gum in the basket.

Ralph Nickerson leaves two bottles of milk on the lunch-room table.

Charlotte Simpson leaves her post as official questioner as to why and wherefore.

Joseph Fitzpatrick leaves the job of amusing the Spanish and History classes to anyone who wants it.

Who left that comic-strip on Miss Guiney's desk?

Dot Patch gladly leaves the seat in 208 where the chair is too high and the desk is too low.

George Ohlson leaves his fingerprints, nothing else, in the typewriting room.

Mildred Richenburg leaves us in possession of several hitherto unheard of Solid Geometry propositions.

To all oncoming classes we leave:

The falling tiles in Rooms 204, 205, and 206.

The lockers with the doors that stick.

The loose chairs that make the occupants seasick.

Many delightful hours after school with Muzzey.

The torture of preparing for College Boards which they never will take.

Upon request, the one abili for "hooking" that worked on Mr. O'Brien.

The precedent of a girl president.

Sadly, the best headmaster in the Boston Schools.

Dick Travers lays aside his saxaphone and clarinet. He ought to.

Norman Wiedeman leaves without yet having touched his toes during setting-up-drill.

Henry Canty leaves a huge gap in our pitching staff.

Audrey McCarter leaves Mr. O'Brien with a set of Cafeteria account books in perfect condition.

Guy Cammarata leaves Miss Thyne slight'y dazed after listening to his arguments.

John Rogers leaves right field. Ah! A chance for a safe hit in that direction.

Madeline Schiano leaves with a natural imitation of Martha Raye.

Jerry McCarthy leaves with a new nickname and everything that was loose.

Olive Allen leaves with a diamond ring.

Rosemary O'Hara leaves a well worn Math book.

Miriam Murray leaves to take a position in the President's Cabinet.

Ruth Bell leaves with a scholarship. Wow!

Anna Whooley leaves her unbalanced lunch-counter reports.

Elinor Brauer leaves to be a secretary in the State House.

Dot Kern leaves for Hollywood to show Ina Ray Hutton how to really lead a band.

Helen Vance leaves for Philadelphia.

We leave our rival schools looking fearfully to their laurels.

We, the class of 1937, hereby, hereunto, do set and affix our hand and seal this first day of June A. D. 1937, in the county of Suffolk, city of Boston.

In witness whereof, we hereunto subscribe our names.

Signed

VALEDICTORY

As the hour of graduation approaches, it is with a deep feeling of sadness that we, the first seniors of Roslindale High School, prepare to leave the school which in one short year has grown so dear to us. From all new experiences one gains much; one becomes more assured and better able to meet life's problems. This past year has certainly been a new experience for us. I think that each of us feels he has reaped plentifully from it. Perhaps the greatest and most precious thing we have acquired, besides, of course, a deeper knowledge of scholarly things, is friendship; the friendship of both fellow students and teaching staff. It is said that friendship is life's most precious gift. If this is true, you and I are richly equipped to start on our way along life's winding road. It would not be right to say that we have gained only learning and friendship, for we have had impressed upon us also the ideals of right living and working. We have been taught to strive until we overcome all difficulties, to obey those in authority, to be public spirited, to help those in need, to be open minded, and, above all, to think for ourselves. We have been fortunate this year in being the recipients of much freedom and of many privileges. These all have taught us self-reliance and self-control. Because of these things we are better fitted now, as commencement nears to meet the temptations and hardships of life.

We are stepping forth into a world all tingling for novelty and speed; a troubled world that is just coming out of a great depression. Each, by his work can help make this a better and finer place to live in; for great things are accomplished by the united efforts of many small individuals. It is our duty as the coming generation to give our best for the betterment of society. By so doing we ourselves will live finer, more complete lives.

Uplifted by such thoughts and excited by the glamour of graduation we forget the sadness of parting. Later, however, we shall feel a loneliness for school friends and a longing to walk once again in the corridors of Roslindale High School. But we are not parting forever. Reunions will find us mingling together again, renewing friendships that will grow stronger with each succeeding year.

The Tattler represents the first effort of Roslindale High School students in the field of school journalism. The editors, conscious of its many imperfections, hope that even these failings will help guide students of the future in bringing forth a more worthy publication. They hope also that this little book will meet the desire expressed by many for some memento of our school's first year of existence.

Space will not permit the naming of every one who has generously assisted in this work, especially in collecting personal items. The editors, therefore, must regretfully confine themselves to a single expression of gratitude to all at once.

THE SENIOR COUNCIL

The Senior Council is a group of twelve elected members representing every Senior homeroom. It is their duty to inform the class officers of the desires of the Seniors, to plan all social activities, to help in the selection of the class gift, and to aid in any other business of the Senior class. Meetings are held every Wednesday and are presided over by the class officers.

This year, because of the fact that we are the first Senior class, the Council has had a great deal of work and, by the cooperation of the whole Senior class, this work has been done with great success. It is hoped that in succeeding years the council will become more and more useful in helping in all class affairs.

THE 1937 CLASS PROM

The major social function of the Senior Class was a formal promenade at Longwood Towers on March 5, 1937. Ned Marshall and his orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Fun for all was provided by Pyhllis Godfrey, Chairman, and her competent committee, including Virginia Hitcheock, Ruth McCarter, Norman Fischer, Thomas Dolan, Milda Dragasious, Thomas McHugh, Betty Bridges, Miriam Murray, and Helen Vanee. Phyllis and her colleagues presided over the Spot Dance and the Elimination Dance, the prizes for which were won respectively by Mary Leonard and her escort, and by Elinor Stots and Joseph Fish.

The ballroom was gayly decorated with vari-colored streamers, and from the center of the ceiling hung a colored bag, from which balloons rained down on the couples.

Every few minutes the hall was illuminated by blinding flashes, caused by two very enthusiastic photographers taking pictures of merry groups of dancers and of the class officers.

The occasion was graced by the presence of Mr. Warren, our Headmaster, and Mrs. Warren.

Several of our teachers and a few of our parents joined in the gaity and helped to make Roslindale's first Prom an overwhelming success.

THE SENIOR SOCIAL

An enthusiastic group of seniors, augmented by several members of the faculty, attended a social party in the gymnasium of the Roslindale High School on Friday afternoon, April 2. Music was furnished by Martin Waters and his Swing Band. Vocal selections were sung by Dorothy Ferry, Helen Dahl, and Mary Waters, and a recitation was given by Bernadine Travers. Lloyd Marshall entertained with his guitar and sang several cowboy songs. The committee in charge comprised Jeremiah McCarthy, Richard Travers, Mary Uriot, Claire Cummings, Betty, Bridges, Maura Adler, Mary O'Brien, Kathleen Clifford, Phyllis Godfrey, and John Maher.

The feeling of those present was that affairs of this sort promote good fellowship among classmates and furnish them with pleasant memories.

POSTURE GROUP

The relation of posture to health is a subject that is given careful attention by the Physical Education Department of our schools. From the lowest grades onward, pupils are not only taught the value of good posture but are given practical exercises for attaining it.

The group of girls in the picture above were chosen by lot, under the direction of Miss Carter, our Instructor in Physical Education, from among those in the senior class who received the grade of "A" in posture.

Girls in Posture Picture—Maura Adler, Olive Allen, Mary Benersani, Elizabeth Benson, Elinor Brauer, Betty Chellman, Virginia Child, Kathleen Clifford, Mary Coppola, Frances Deylon, Marguerite English, Violet Fischer, Lillian Guilford, Mary Kelleher, Eleanora Kramer, Barbara McDonough, Mary O'Brien, Rosemary O'Hara, Doris Patterson, Claire Petersen, Alison Pike, Mildred Richenburg, Phyllis Ruggiero, Eva Williamson.

THE CHRISTMAS PLAY

That Roslindale School has a promising future in the dramatic field was shown by the fine presentation we witnessed on December 23 of the impressive Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Ring." If any of us entered the auditorium on that day expecting to see just another school affair, we must have received a genuine surprise; for the performance was most convincing, and imbued us all with the true spirit of the season. The boys and girls who took part were warm in their gratitude to Miss Harrington for her skillful and sympathetic coaching and to Miss Asnive for the most effective Cathedral setting that she and her assistants provided.

Ruth Altimar	Robert Adair	Paul Daston
Maureen Kelly	Mary Glennon	Doris Land
Camilla Massimino	Roland Woll	Hilda Oliver
Bernadine Travers	Iona Cefalo

Duets in two-piano arrangement were played by Mr. Tierney, assistant director of music, and Joseph Stookas, a pupil.

Pupil committees included Ruth Cushing, Phyllis McBride, Adeline Pokat, Margaret McDermid, costume; William Winter, Roy Savage, Robert Farmer, scenery; Edward Arenda, Frank Nicotera, lighting; Marjorie Guitar, Theresa Newman, Margaret Dunkerly, properties; and Hilda Contestabile and Mary Coveney, makeup.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS

Amidst the bustle and excitement of starting a new school, there came quietly into being at Roslindale High a very helpful and successful branch of the Junior Red Cross. Under the capable guidance of Miss Starvinos, who has been tireless in her efforts, this new chapter has a long list of achievements that a more seasoned group might envy. Among the more notable were the sending, at Thanksgiving time, of fifty beautifully decorated menus to the Chelsea Memorial Hospital for Veterans which were forwarded to headquarters for distribution among needy children. All these activities were made possible by the generosity of the pupils of the school, who contributed to the fund through their home room representatives.

At the Red Cross Headquarters in Boston our Chapter was ably represented by Albert Nyren, senior delegate, and Dorothy Fay, junior delegate.

THE SPANISH CLUB

Considering the fact that the Spanish Club is a comparatively young organization, it has prospered remarkably this year under the able guidance and ready assistance of Miss Stavrinos, the faculty adviser.

The purpose of the club is to further the interest of Spanish in the school and to acquaint the students with the habits and culture of the Spanish people.

The following officers were elected: President, Amando Rossi; Secretary, Irene Henry; and Treasurer, Dorothy Norley. The meetings were held monthly and entertainment was furnished by members of the Spanish classes.

On April fourteenth the Spanish Club, assisted by Mr Haertl and the orchestra, presented a Pan-American day entertainment in the school auditorium.

A paper recalling to mind the significance of the day was read by Albert Nyren, a member of the club.

An entertaining feature of the program was the presentation of an Eastern Kodak film entitled, "Argentina."

The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Wagner presented the twenty-one marches of the American Republic.

THE PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB

This club was organized to give all members of the School an opportunity to acquire greater skill and power in the art of vocal expression. Apart from debates and impromptu discussions within the Society, many of the members have, during the year, undergone the acid test of speaking from the public platform. At the Patriots' Day exercises held in the Assembly Hall, Virginia Dale '38 gave an interesting talk on the many-sided genius of Paul Revere, and George Vogel gave a vivid account of the great stand at Concord.

As the result of an elimination contest open to all students of the school J. Norman Hall '38 was selected to represent us in the Annual Interscholastic Oratorical Contest.

The following officers were chosen in the March election:

J. Norman Hall '38	President
Eileen O'Connor '37	Vice-President
Rita Reilly '38	Secretary
George Vogel '38	Treasurer
Virginia Dale '38	Sergeant-at-Arms
Audrey Higgins '37	Moderator
Adeline Pokat '37	Year Book Representative

In a recent State-wide contest held by the Stanley School of Expression for high school students, Miss Eileen O'Connor, vice-president of the Club, won the first prize, which entitles her to a complete four-year scholarship to this College of the Speech Arts.

THE VERSE SPEAKING CHOIR

The Verse Speaking Choir is a group of Seniors and Juniors interested in the revival of the art of choral speaking as "an artistic expression of group emotion through the inter-relation of voice and poetry." The following is an indication of the technique: "The members of the choir, who must possess an innate capacity to appreciate poetry, are selected on the basis of their varying tonal quality. They are taught to blend their voices, light and dark, in perfect harmony of tone and synchronization of rhythm. . . . The poem comes to life as the active creation of the group."

A program which the Choir gave at the joint meeting of two New England Poetry Societies at 1 Arlington Street in February was very well received.

Members of the choir are: Light: Barbara Brown, Catherine Crowley, Marie De Christofaro, Violet Fischer, Virginia Gebhard, Ruth Gibbons, Margery Hamburger.

Medium: Marjorie Burleigh, Marie Hines, Rosalie Laudato, Margaret McDermid, Eleanor Morris, Ruth Savage, Mary Waters.

Dark: Alta Campbell, Virginia Dale, Virginia De Haro, Grace Dodge, Josephine Ioanelli, Camilla Massimino, Elizabeth Napoleon.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized in January, 1937 under the direction of Miss Riley. It consists of six Cadet Officers chosen by Major Kelley and a representative from each home room. Its purpose is to develop in its members a sense of responsibility and initiative by giving them opportunities to assist in carrying out the regulations of the school. In other words, it is a step in student self-government. The Council meets twice a month to discuss ways and means of conducting its activities.

Representatives of the Council attended a convention of Massachusetts Student Councils, held at the Arlington High School. There they learned many interesting facts about councils from other schools.

ORCHESTRA

Last October when the boys and girls who could play musical instruments were called together to form an orchestra, we all wondered what would come of it, as the musical talent of the school was then an unknown quantity. It was not long, however, before the sounds of music we heard coming from the Assembly Hall gave promise that Mr. Wagner was developing an orchestra well worth listening to. This promise has been fulfilled on various occasions when the assembled school has been entertained with good music well played.

In his regular meetings with the orchestra Mr. Wagner proceeds along educational lines. The pieces played are of such a nature as to develop the musical taste of the students and of sufficient range to broaden their interest.

Our orchestra and that of Hyde Park High School have now united to prepare programs for the remainder of the year.

MEMBERS OF THE GLEE CLUB

Choral music resounding through our rooms and corridors during the past year has served as a pleasant stimulation amidst the routine of every day life. Mr. Tierney's classes in Choral Practice have attained much in the way of real musical accomplishment. This is especially true of his selected group of singers known as the Glee Club, which has given color and tone to many of our entertainments. In December "Jesu Bambino," "Silent Night," and other carols reminded us that Christmas was at hand. At other times hymns, folk songs, ballads, and operatic pieces were sung, each suitable to the spirit of the occasion.

THE VARIETY SHOW

On February 18 and 19, some of our students gave a Variety Show that surprised us all by the excellence and diversity of talent revealed.

Roland Woll was master of ceremonies, and Martin Waters led the orchestra, which provided appropriate music, much of which was either composed or arranged by its leader.

PROGRAM

A dramatic sketch, entitled "A Dispatch Goes Home."

Stanley Curley, Mildred Wieher, Edward Neumeier, and William Vanner.

Instrumental selections.

William Fitzpatrick, Richard Woll, Anthony Lombardi, Joseph Condron, and George Coen.

Monologues. Dorothy Barnard, Bernadine Travers, and Pauline Sharpe.

Rhythmic Dancing. Dorothy Bell, Barbara Thorpe, Clare Brown, and Grace Holmes.

Ballet Dancing. Tina Genco

Vocal Selections. Frances Kozlowski, Dorothy Terry, and Helen Dahl.

Songs with guitar accompaniment. Both by Lloyd Marshall

Acrobatic Dancing. Betty Twomey and Virginia Bush.

Tumbling. R. Haddigan and Vincent Falcone

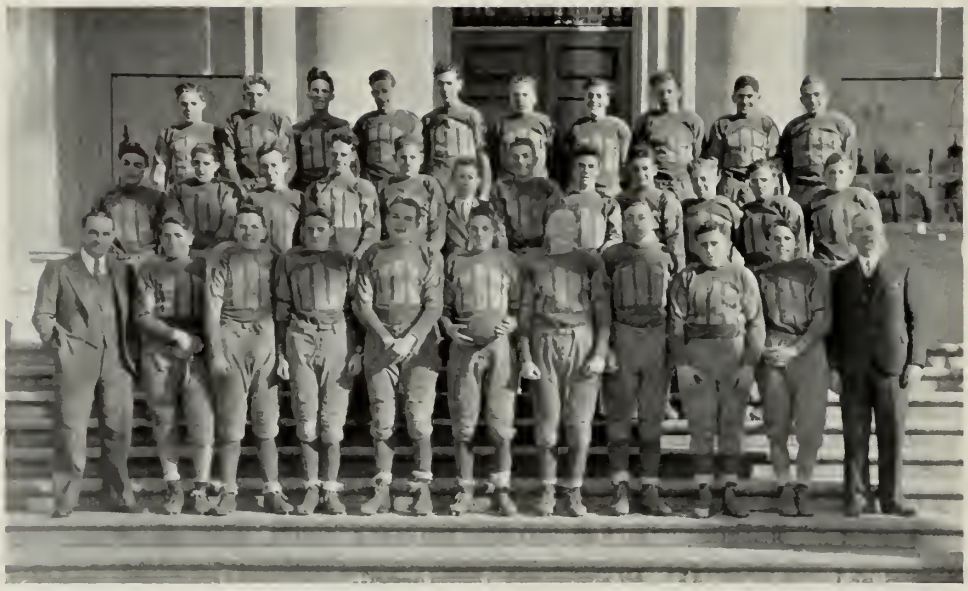
ATHLETICS



FOOTBALL TEAM

Our football team, although not winning any games, made a creditable showing on the gridiron in its first season. After losing the first two games to East Boston and Brighton, our boys came back and held a highly favored South Boston team to a scoreless tie. The team showed improvement in the next game against Jamaica Plain when we tied them 6–6. John Keady, Jamaica transfer, who played a very steady game in the backfield all season, was the boy who scored our only touchdown. In the final game against a much heavier Charlestown team we were defeated, but only after a stubborn battle.

As most of the lettermen will return next season it is expected that our popular coach, Mr. Murray, will put a more experienced team on the field.

BASEBALL

On account of inclement weather and lack of the necessary equipment, our baseball team was off to a slow start. The boys finally got going, however, and Mr. Murray formed a fine team, one that brought glory to the school in its first game, beating a highly favored Latin School team 9-6.

All the boys played well, and Henry Canty, our ace hurler, pitched a wonderful game. They have played only this game as we go to press, but we all look forward to a successful season for this, our first baseball team. The names of members with respective positions follow:

John Keady 1st base
Bernard LeBlanc 2nd base
Melrose Reeds shortstop
George Sotir shortstop
Alexander Girvan 3rd base
Richard Jameson 3rd base
William Daley l f
George Ohlson c f
John Rogers r f

THE TRACK TEAM

Despite the small squad and the poor facilities, our school team, coached by Fred Murray, made a fine showing for its first year in track. Among the district schools we succeeded in placing fourth in the Regimental Meet.

John Maher and Bill Daley in the 600 and Al Nyren in the 1000 were the stars of the class A. Frank Dierauf was the District "champ" in the class B hurdles. Larry Ballantine in the 440 and Eddie Wallace and Joe Vitello in the 220 were the high point scorers in class C. M. McGrath, George Sommer, and Steve Murphy were the chief threats in the high jump. The latter two along with Chet Stamper placed consistently in the hurdle event while John Thomas took care of the broad jump. Douglas McLeod registered points for the school in the 176-yd. run in the District meet.

The Class D relay of Murphy, Weinstock, Sommer and Thomas won second in the Districts, and the one-lap team composed of Conrad, Fischer, Joyce and Thomas beat Laconia and Charlestown in the Relay Carnival.

The two records that were smashed were both in class D. Paul Shirar eclipsed the old mark in the shotput with a heave of 55 feet 9 inches in the districts, and John Thomas cut the Regimental mark in the 176 down to 21.1 seconds.

Other boys who scored points in the triangular meets and who shown promise for the future are the following: Class A, Walter Burke; Class B, Bernard Bedugnis, Charles McKenney, Bernard Kelley, Robert McTiernan, Anthony Frasca. Class C, John Monahan, Raymond Smith, Thomas McGrath; Class D, Arthur Dorsey, David Perry, Benny Foletro.

PRESTIGE and YOUR FUTURE

in Music or Dramatics

Throughout seventy years students have come to obtain musical training in Boston. As trained musicians they have gone forth to success as soloists, operatic stars, teachers, conductors and composers. Their accomplishments have built World-Wide Prestige for graduates of —

New England CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Director Wallace Goodrich BOSTON General Manager Ralph L. Flanders

Our students work in an environment which stimulates accomplishment. The instruction given combines theory, practice and public experience.

Dramatic students participate in a Full Season of Drama programs. All benefit from an excellent faculty and unusual facilities.

71st YEAR BEGINS SEPTEMBER 16

Students received for study of Single Subjects
Recognized Diplomas and Collegiate Degrees Conferred

If you possess talents worth developing for a profession or an avocation you should obtain the advantages of the training at New England Conservatory of Music. Write to the Secretary for a complete illustrated Catalog, or to receive free tickets to Recitals.
